A MINISTERIAL REGISTER;

OR, COMPANION TO THE POLITICAL HISTORY OF THE PRESENT REIGN;

Exhibiting at One View the succeſſive Changes in all the Principal Departments of Government, in proper Order and Date, and affording an eaſy and immediate Reference to the ſubſiſting Adminiſtration, at any Period required, collectively or individually.

[ The Names of thoſe deceaſed, are printed in Italic Characters.]

REFERENCES.

Anſon, Geo. (the celebrated Circumnavigator in 1740) afterwards Admiral, created Lord Anſon 1747, Firſt Lord of the Admiralty 1757 to his death in June 1762. Title extinct.

Apſley (Henry Bathurſt, Lord) ſon of Allen Lord Bathurſt, a Judge of the Common Pleas 1754, created Lord Apſley and appointed Chancellor Jan. 1771—1778, became Earl Bathurſt on the death of his father 1775, Preſident of the Council Nov. 1779—1782, died Aug. 1794, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

Arden, Sir Richard Pepper, Solicitor General Nov. 1782 to 1783, again Dec. 1783—1784, Attorney-General March 1784—1788, Maſter of the Rolls May 1788.

Barrington (Wm. Wildman, Viſcount in Ireland) a Commiſſioner of the Admiralty 1746—1754, Secretary at War 1757, Chancellor of the Exchequer Mar. 1761—1762, again Secretary at War Aug. 1765—1778, died Feb. 1793, ſucceeded by his nephew the preſent Viſcount. He was brother to Adm. Barrington, to the preſent Bp. of Durham, and the late Hon. Daines Barrington.

Bathurſt. See Apſley.

Bedford (John Ruſſell, Duke of) Firſt Lord of the Admiralty 1744, Secretary of State 1748—1750, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland 1756—1761, Privy Seal Dec. 1761—1763, Preſident of the Council April 1763—1765, Ambaſſador to France, and concluded the peace 1763, died Jan. 1771, ſucceeded by his grandſon the preſent Duke.

Briſtol (Geo. Wm. Hervey, Earl of) Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Aug. 1766—1767, Privy Seal Nov. 1768—1770, died March 1775, ſucceeded by his brother Auguſtus John, (huſband of the Ducheſs of Kingſton) who died Dec. 1779, ſucceeded by a third brother Frederic, the preſent Earl, who is Biſhop of Derry in Ireland.

Buckingham. See Temple.

Buckinghamſhire (John Hobart, Earl of) Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Nov. 1776—1780, died Sept. 1793, ſucceeded by his brother the preſent Earl.

Bute, John Stuart, Earl of, in Scotland (Governor to his preſent Majeſty when Prince of Wales) Secretary of State Mar. 1761—1762, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury May 1762—1763, died March 1792, ſucceeded by his ſon, ſince created Marquis of Bute.

Camden (Charles Pratt, Lord) Attorney-General 1759, Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas 1762, created Lord Camden 1765, Lord Chancellor Aug. 1766—1770, Preſident of the Council March 1782—1783, again Dec. 1784—1794, created Earl Camden May 1786, died April 1794, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

Camden (John Jeffries Pratt, Earl) Lord Lieutenant of Ireland March 1795—1798.

Carlisle (Frederic Howard, Earl of) a Commiſſioner for treating with America 1778, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Sept. 1780—1782, Lord Privy Seal April to Dec. 1783.

Carmarthen (Francis Oſborne, Marquis of) only ſon of the Duke of Leeds, Secretary of State December 1783—1791, ſucceeded his father as Duke of Leeds 1789, died April 1799, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Duke.

Cavendiſh (Lord John) an uncle of the preſent Duke of Devonſhire, Chancellor of the Exchequer March to July 1782, again April to Dec. 1783, died Dec. 1796.

Chatham (Wm. Earl of). See Pitt, Wm. the Elder.

Chatham (John, Earl of) Firſt Ld. of the Admiralty July 1788 to 1794, Lord Privy Seal 1794—1796, Preſident of the Council 1796 to the preſent time.

Conway (General, afterwards Field Marſhal, Henry Seymour) brother to the Earl of Hertford, Secretary of State 1765 to 1768, died July 1795.

Cornwallis (General Charles, Earl) Governor General and Commander in Chief in India 1786—1792, created Marquis 1792, Maſter General of the Ordnance 1795, Lord Lieut. of Ireland June 1798, holds both offices at the preſent time.

Dartmouth (Wm. Legge, Earl of) Sec. of State for the Colonies June 1772—1775, Lord Privy Seal June 1775—1782.

De Grey (Sir Francis) Chancellor of the Exchequer March 1762 to 1765, ſummoned to parliament as Baron le De Spencer, an ancient barony in fee 1763, died December 1781, title deſcended to a female branch.

De Grey (Wm.) Solicitor-General 1763, Attorney-General Aug. 1766—1771, Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas 1771—80, [illegible] died May 1781, ſucceeded [illegible] (Wm.) Chancellor of the Exchequer July 1765 to 1766, died Feb. 1775.

Dundas (Henry) formerly Lord Advocate of Scotland, Treaſurer of the Navy July 1782, again Dec. 1783, Secretary of [illegible] June 1791, and holds both offices to the preſent time.

[illegible] James Percival, Earl of) in Ireland, of the Admiralty and Holland in Great Britain 1770, ſucceeded by his [illegible], Earl of) Sec. of State Oct. 1761 to his death in Aug. 1763.

[illegible] (Welb.) Sec. at War April 1762—1765, Treaſurer of the Navy 1777—1782, Secretary of State for the Colonies Jan. to March 1782, created Lord Mendip Auguſt 1794.

Fitzpatrick (Hon. Richard) brother to the Earl of Upper Oſſory, Secretary at War April to Dec. 1783.

Fitzwilliam (Wm. Wentworth, Earl) nephew to the late Marquis of Rockingham, Preſident of the Council May 1794, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Dec. 1794—1795.

Fox (Hon. Ch. James) ſecond ſon of the late, and uncle to the preſent Lord Holland, Secretary of State March to July 1782, again April to Dec. 1783.

Germaine (Lord Geo. Sackville) a younger ſon of Lionel, Duke of Dorſet, formerly a General in the army, took the name of Germaine 1770, Sec. of State for the Colonies June 1775 to 1782, created Viſcount Sackville Feb. 1782, died Aug. 1785, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Viſcount.

Gower (Granville Leviſon, Earl) Member for Weſtminſter when Lord Trentham, at the memorable conteſt 1749, Preſident of the Council Nov. 1767—1779, again Dec. 1783 to 1784, Lord Privy Seal Dec. 1784—1794, created Marquis of Stafford Feb. 1786.

Grafton (Auguſtus Fitzroy, Duke of) Sec. of State July 1765—1766, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury Aug. 1766—1770, Lord Privy Seal June 1771—1775, again Mar. 1782—1783.

Granby (John Manners, Marquis of) only ſon of John Duke of Rutland, father of Charles the late, and grandfather of the preſent Duke, a celebrated Commander in Germany in 1759, &c. Maſter-General of the Ordnance April 1763 to his death in Oct. 1770.

Grantham (Tho. Robinſon, Lord) Firſt Lord of Trade 1781 and 1782, Secretary of State July 1782—1783, died July 1786, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Lord.

Granville (John Carteret, Earl) formerly Lord Carteret, Secretary of State 1720—1724, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland 1724 to 1730, Secretary of State 1742—1744, Lord Preſident to his death January 1763.

Grenville (Geo.) brother to Richard Earl Temple, and father to the preſent Marquis of Buckingham, Treaſurer of the Navy 1754, Sec. of State May, and Firſt Lord of the Admiralty Oct. 1762, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury and Chancellor of the Exchequer April 1763—1765, died Nov. 1770.

Grenville (Wm. Wyndham) Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, Jan. 1789, Secretary of State June 1789 to the preſent time, created Lord Grenville November 1790.

Halifax (Geo. Montagu Dunk, Earl of) Firſt Lord of Trade 1748—1761, Lord Lieut. of Ireland Oct. 1761—1763, Firſt Lord of the Admiralty June 1762, Secretary of State Oct. 1762 to 1765, Lord Privy Seal February 1770, again Sec. of State Jan. 1771, died June 1771. Title extinct.

Harcourt (Simon, Earl) Ld. Lieut. of Ireland Oct. 1772—1776, died Sept. 1777, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

[illegible] (Adm. Sir Edw.) Firſt Lord of the Admiralty Dec. 1766 [illegible], died Oct. 1781, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Lord.

[illegible] See Jenkinſon.

[illegible] Attorney-General 1756, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal 1757—1761, created Lord Henley March 1760, [illegible] July 1766, created Earl of Northington May 1764, Preſd. of the Coun. Aug. 1766—1767, died Dec. 1772.

[illegible] (Francis Seymour Conway, Earl of) Lord Lieutenant [illegible] July 1765—1766, Lord Chamberlain Dec. 1766 [illegible] April to Dec. 1783, created Marq. of Hertford [illegible] June 1794, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Marquis.

[illegible] Hill, Earl of, in Ireland, and Lord Harwich in [illegible] Firſt Lord of Trade Sept. 1765—1765, again [illegible] Secretary of State for the Colonies Jan. [illegible] 1772, a Sec. of State again Nov. 1779—1782, created [illegible] borough in Great Britain 1772, Marq. of Down[illegible] 1789, died Oct. 1793, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Marquis.

	First Lord of the Treaſury.	Chancellor of the Exchequer.	Lord High Chancellor.	Secretaries of State: South, now Foreign Department.	Secretaries of State: North, now Home Department.	Secretaries of State: American Depart. 1768 to 1782, now War Depart.	Ld. Preſident of the Council.	Lord Privy Seal.	First Lord of the Admiralty.	Secretary at War.	Maſter General of the Ordnance.	Attorney General.	Lord Lieut. of Ireland.
At the King's Acceſſion, Oct. 1760.	D of Newcaſtle	H. B. Legge.	Lord Henley.	E of Holderneſs	William Pitt.		Earl Granville.	Earl Temple.	Lord Anſon.	Viſ. Barrington	Ld. Ligonier.	Charles Pratt.	D. of Bedford.
1761.		V. Barrington.		Earl of Bute.	E. of Egremont.			In Commiſſion. D. of Bedford.		Ch. Townſhend.		Charles Yorke.	E. of Halifax.
1762.	Earl of Bute.	Sir F. Daſhwood		G. Grenville. E. of Halifax.					E. of Halifax. G. Grenville.	Welb. Ellis.
1763.	George Grenville.				E. of Sandwich		D. of Bedford.	D. Marlboro'	E. of Sandwich E. of Egmont.		M. of Granby.	Sir F. Norton.	E of Northumb.
1764.
1765.	M of Rockingh.	W Dowdeſwell.		D. of Grafton	H. S. Conway.		E. Winchelſea.	D of Newcaſtle		Viſ. Barrington		Charles Yorke.	Viſ. Weymouth. E. of Hertford.
1766.	D. of Grafton	Ch. Townſhend.	Lord Camden.	H. S. Conway.	D. Richmond E. Shelburne.		E. Northington.	E. of Chatham.	Sir C. Saunders. Sir E. Hawke.			Wm. De Grey.	E. of Briſtol.
1767.		Lord North.					Earl Gower.						V. Townſhd.
1768.				V. Weymouth. E. of Rockford.	V. Weymouth.	E. Hillſborough		Earl of Briſtol
1769.
1770.	Lord North.	Ch. Yorke. In Commiſſion Jan. 1770.		E. of Sandwich	E. of Rockford.			E. of Halifax.			died Oct.
1771.			Lord Apſley,	E. of Halifax. E. of Suffolk.				E. of Suffolk. D. of Grafton	E. of Sandwich			Ed. Thurlow
1772.						E. Dartmouth					V. Townſhd.		Earl Harcourt
1773.
1774.
1775.					V. Weymouth.	L. G. Germaine		E Dartmouth
1776.													E of Buckingh.
1777.
1778.		Ld. Thurlow.								C. Jenkinſon		A. Wedderburne
1779.				Viſ. Stormont.	E. Hillſborough		Earl Bathurſt.
1780.												J. Wallace.	E. of Carliſle.
1782.	M of Rockingh. E. Shelburne.	L. J. Cavendiſh Wm. Pitt.		C. J. Fox. Ld. Grantham.	Shelburne. T. Townſhd.	Welb. Ellis.	Ld. Camden.	D. of Grafton	Viſ. Keppel. Viſ. Howe.	T. Townſhd. Sir G. Yonge.	D. Richmond	L. Kenyon.	D of Portland Earl Temple.
1783.	D of Portland	L. J. Cavendiſh	In Commiſſion April 2, 1782.	C. J. Fox.	Lord North.		Viſ. Stormont.	E. of Carliſle.	Viſ. Keppel.	R Fitzpatrick	V. Townſhd.	J. Wallace.	E. Northington.
1784.	William Pitt.		Ld. Thurlow.	M. Carmarthen.	Ld. Sydney.		Earl Gower.	D. of Rutland. Earl Temple. In Commiſſion.	Viſ. Howe.	Sir G. Yonge.	D. Richmond	L. Kenyon. R. P. Arden.	D. of Rutland.
1785.							Ld. Camden.	Earl Gower.
1786.
1787.													M. of Buckh.
1788.									E of Chatham			A Macdonald
1789.					W. Grenville								E. of Weſtm.
1790.
1791.				Ld Grenville	H. Dundas.
1792.			In Commiſſion June 15, 1792.
1793.			L. Loughbro'									Sir J. Scott.
1794.					D. Portland.	H. Dundas.	E Fitzwilliam E. of Mansfield	E. Spencer. E of Chatham	E. Spencer.	W Windham			E Fitzwilliam
1795.											M Cornwallis		E. Camden.
							E of Chatham
1797.
1798.								E. of Weſtm.					M Cornwallis
1799.												Sir J. Mitford
1800.

War with France. — Twelfth Parliament diſſolved March 11, 1768. — Thirteenth Parliament diſſolved September 30, 1774. — Sixteenth Parliament diſſolved June 12, 1790. — Seventeenth Parliament diſſolved May 20, 1796. — Eighteenth Parliament

Pitt & Newcaſtle Adminiſtration. June 1757 to May 1762.	Bute Adminiſtration. May 1762 to April 1763.	Grenville Adminiſtration. April 1763 to July 1765.	Rockingham Adminiſtration. July 1765 to July 1766.	Grafton Adminiſtration. July 1766 to Jan. 1770.	North Adminiſtration. Jan. 1770 to March 1782.	2. Rockingham Adminiſtration. March to July 1782.	Shelburne Adminiſtration. July 1782 to March 1783.	Coalition Adminiſtration. [illegible]	Pitt Adminiſtration. [illegible] 1783.

REFERENCES.

Holderneſs (Robt. D'Arcy, Earl of) Secretary of State 1761, died May 1778. Title extinct.

How[illegible] (Admiral Richard Viſcount Howe in Ireland) [illegible] Howe in Great Britain 1782, Firſt Lord of the Admiralty to April [illegible] again Dec. 1783—1788, created Earl [illegible] Aug. 1788, died [illegible]

Jenkinſon (Hon. Charles) brother to the late Earl of Liverpool, ſucceeded as Viſcount Hawkeſbury 1786, created Lord Hawkeſbury 1786, Secretary at War [illegible] Lord Hawkeſbury) Secretary at War [illegible] William Howe. Lancaſter Sept. [illegible] July 1786, Chan[illegible] 1786.

Kenyon (Lloyd) Attorney-General [illegible] created Earl of Liverpool again Dec. 1783, Maſter [illegible] General March 1782 to [illegible] Kenyon and Lord Chief Juſtice [illegible] Rolls 1784, [illegible] to the preſent time.

Keppel (Admiral, the Hon. Auguſtus) uncle of the preſent Earl of Albemarle, created Viſcount Keppel April 1782, Lord of the Admiralty March to Dec. 1782, again Dec. 1783, died Oct. 1786. Title extinct.

Lansdown. See Shelburne.

Le De Spencer. See Daſhwood.

Legge (Henry Biſſon) uncle of the preſent Earl of Dartmouth, Treaſurer of the Navy 1749, Chancellor of the Exchequer 1754 and 1755, again 1756 and 1757, again 1[illegible] died Aug. 1764. His Lady was Baroneſs Stawell. [illegible] ſent Lord Stawell is their ſon.

Ligonier (Field Marſhal John, Lord) Maſter-General of the Ordnance to 1763, created Earl Ligonier 1763, [illegible] 1770. Title extinct.

Liverpool. See Jenkinſon.

Loughborough. See Wedderburne.

Macdonald (Sir Archibald) uncle to Ld. Macdonald of Scotland, and ſon-in-law to the Marquis of Stafford, Solicitor-General 1784, Attorney-General May 1788—1793, [illegible] Baron of the Exchequer Feb. 1793.

Marlborough (G. Spencer, D. of) Ld. Privy Seal May [illegible] to 1765. Has not ſince filled any office in adminiſ[illegible]

Mansfield (Earl of). See Stormont.

Mitford (Sir John) Solicitor-General 1793, Attorney-General July 1799 to the preſent time.

Newcaſtle upon Tyne (Tho. Pelham Holles, Duke of) [illegible] ated 1715, Secretary of State 1724—1745, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury 1754—1756, again 1757—1762, Lord Privy Seal July 1765 to Aug. 1766, created Duke of Newcaſtle-upon-Tyne, with limitation in favour of the Earl of Lincoln [illegible] died Nov. 1768, ſucceeded in the latter Dukedom by the Earl, who was many years Auditor of the Exchequ. grandfather of the preſent Duke of Newcaſtle.

North (Frederic, Lord) eldeſt ſon of Francis Earl of Guilford, a Commiſſioner of the Treaſury 1759—1765, Chancellor of the Exchequer Sept. 1767, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury and Chancellor of the Exchequer Jan. 1770—1782, Sec. of State April to Dec. 1783, became Earl of Guilford 1790, died Aug. 1792, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

Northington (Robt. Henley, firſt Earl of). See Henley.

Northington (Robt. Henley ſecond Earl of) ſon of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland April 1783—1784, died June 1786. Title extinct.

Northumberland (Hugh Percy, Earl of) formerly Sir Hugh Smithſon, Bart. married the heireſs of the Northumb. family, Lieut. of Ireland Sept. 1763—1765, created D. of Northumb. 1766, died 1786, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Duke.

Norton (Sir Fletcher) Solicitor-General Dec. 1761, Attorney-General Nov. 1763—1765, Speaker of the Houſe of Commons 1770—1780, created Lord Grantley in March 1782, died Jan. 1789, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Lord.

Pitt (William, the Elder) Pay-Maſter of the Forces 1746—1[illegible] Sec. of State 1756—1757, again 1757—1761, created [illegible] Chatham Aug. 1766, Lord Privy Seal Aug. 1766—[illegible] died May 1778, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

Pitt (William, the Younger) ſecond ſon of the late [illegible] Chancellor of the Exchequer July 1782 to April 1783, Lord of the Treaſury and Chancellor of the Exchequer [illegible] 1783 to the preſent time.

Portland (Wm. Henry Cavendiſh Bentinck, Duke of) [illegible] Lieut. of Ireland April to July 1782, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury April to Dec. 1783, Sec. of State May 1794 to the preſent time.

Pratt. See Camden.

Richmond (Ch. Lenox, Duke of) [illegible] of State May to Aug. 1766, Maſter-General of the Ordnance March 1782—1783, again Dec. 1783—1795.

Rockford (W. H. Naſſau, Earl of) Sec. of State Oct. 1768—[illegible] died Sept. 1781, ſucceeded by his nephew the preſent Earl.

Rockingham (Ch. Watſon Wentworth, Marquis of) Firſt Lord of the Treaſury July 1765—1766, again March 1782, and died in that office in July following. Title extinct.

Rutland (Charles Manners, Duke of) Lord Privy Seal [illegible] 1783—1784, Lord Lieut. of Ireland Feb. 1784, died in office Oct. 1787, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Duke.

Sandwich (John Montagu, Earl of) Firſt Lord of the Admiralty 1748—1751, again April to Sept. 1763, Sec. of State 1763—1765, again Dec. 1770, again Firſt Lord of the Admiralty Jan. 1771—1782, died April 1792, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

Saunders (Admiral Sir Charles) Firſt Lord of the Admiralty Aug. to Dec. 1766, died Dec. 1775.

Shelburne (Wm. Petty, Earl of, in Ireland) and Lord Wycombe in Great Britain, Sec. of State Aug. 1766—1768, March to July 1782, Firſt Lord of the Treaſury July 1782 to 1783, created Marq. of Lanſdown in Great Britain Nov. [illegible]

Spencer (Geo. J. Spencer, Earl) Lord Privy Seal July [illegible] Firſt Lord of the Admiralty Dec. 1794 to the preſent [illegible]

Stormont (David Murray, Viſcount in Scotland) Ambaſſador France 1772—1778, Secretary of State Oct. 1779—[illegible] Preſident of the Council April to Dec. 1783, became Earl of Mansfield on the death of his uncle 1793, again Preſident of the Council Dec. 1794 to his death Aug. 1796, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Earl.

Suffolk (Henry Howard, Earl of) Lord Privy Seal Jan. [illegible] Secretary of State June 1771 to his death in June 1779.

Sydney. See Townſhend, Thomas.

Scott (Sir John) Solicitor-General 1788, Attorney-General Feb. 1793—1799, created Lord Eldon and appointed Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas July 1799 to the preſent time.

Temple (Richard Grenville, Earl) Firſt Lord of the Admiralty 1756, Lord Privy Seal June 1757—1761, died Sept. 1779, ſucceeded by his nephew the preſent Marquis of Buckingham.

Temple (Geo. Nugent Grenville, Earl) Lord Lieutenant of Ireland July 1782—1783, Lord Privy Seal Feb. [illegible] created Marquis of Buckingham Nov. 1784, again Ld. Lieut. of Ireland Nov. 1787—1789.

Thurlow (Edw.) Solicitor-General 1770, Attorney-General Jan. 1771—1778, created Lord Thurlow and appointed Lord Chancellor May 1778—1783, again Dec. 1783—1792, created Baron Thurlow June 1792.

Townſhend (Charles) brother to the preſent Marquis, Secretary at War March 1761—1763, Chancellor of the Exchequer Aug. 1766 to his death Sept. 1767.

Townshend (Geo. Viſc.) a Field Marſhal, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland Aug. 1767—1772, Maſter-General of the Ordnance Oct. 1772 to March 1782, again April to Dec. 1783 created Marquis Townſhend 1787.

Townshend (Thomas, couſin of the Marquis) Secretary at War March to July 1782, Secretary of State July 1782—1783, created Lord Sydney 1783, again Secretary of State Dec. 1[illegible] to 1789, created Viſcount Sydney June 1789.

Wallace (James) Solic.-Gen. July 1778, Attorney-General [illegible] to 1782, again April 1783 to his death in [illegible]

Wedderburne (Alex.) Solicitor-General [illegible] ney-General June 1778—1780, [illegible] of the Common Pleas Aug. 1780, [illegible] cellor Feb. 1793 to the preſent time.

Westmoreland (John Fane, Earl of) Lord [illegible] land Oct. 1789—1794, Maſter of the [illegible] Privy Seal Feb. 1794 to the preſent time.

Weymouth (Tho. Thynne, Viſcount) [illegible] Aug. 1765, Secretary of State Jan. 1768—[illegible] 1775—1779, created Marquis of Bath Aug. [illegible] 1796, ſucceeded by his ſon the preſent Marquis.

Winchelſea (Daniel, Earl of) Firſt Lord [illegible] 1744, again 1757, Lord Privy Seal [illegible] 1769, ſucceeded [illegible]

Windham [illegible]

Yonge [illegible] Bart.) [illegible] 1784.

Yorke (Hon. Charles) [illegible] and father of the preſent Earl [illegible] ney-General Dec. 1761, [illegible] appointed Lord Chancellor [illegible] peerage, but died ſuddenly [illegible]

London: Printed [illegible] FOR DAVID OGILVY [illegible]